The text of sub-clause 6.2.1 of the Offering Document is deleted and replaced with the following text; after the said amendment, sub-clause 6.2.1 reads as under:

“Classes of Units: Units may be charged with no front-end load or back-end load, or any combination of the foregoing from time to time. The types of Units shall be classified as following:

- (i) Class ‘A’ Units (Restricted/Core) Units: Units issued to the core investor with no Front-end Load and Back-end Load. These Units cannot be redeemed for a period of two (2) years from the date of closure of First Offer. However such units are transferable on the condition that the transferee(s) shall also not redeem the same before the expiry of the period of two years as stated above. Further the Management Company will notify to the Trustee on each transfer.
- (ii) Class ‘B’ Units: Units allocated to Pre IPO and IPO Investors with no Front-end Load; except that in the event of redemption of such Units before the expiry of three (3) months from the date of issue, Back-end Load not exceeding 2.5% of the Redemption Price may be charged as per details given in Offering Document. The Back-end Load shall form part of Fund Property.
- (iii) Class ‘C’ Units: Units allocated to investors after the completion of IPO with Front-end Load (as defined in clause 38.31) and in the event of redemption of such units before the expiry of three (3) months from the date of issue, back-end load not exceeding 2.5% of the Redemption Price may be charged as per details given in Offering Document. The Back-end Load shall form part of Fund Property.
